

Radiation Damage: Is there a Cure?

Ray Egerton, Professor of Physics, University of Alberta,
Edmonton, Canada

This talk will deal with mechanisms of radiation damage (particularly to organic samples) by electrons and x-rays, and procedures which have been used to reduce the amount of damage during the recording of images and diffraction patterns.